Dear Prime Minister

I wrote to you on 27 November 2003. I have not received a reply. I enclose a fresh copy of that unanswered letter..

On 2 April 2004, I am to be interviewed about the work I do on behalf of this group and the political issue we have tried to raise with you, for a TV documentary which is to be broadcast nationwide in May. If you have anything to say before then, please telephone me. Likewise if you would wish a government spokesman also to be present when I am interviewed, and for him or her also to be interviewed about the matters I shall be raising.

Yours sincerely,

John Allman
